

The Art Hawkins Great Canadian Ultimate Game

June 17th/18th 2011 Ultimate players from coast-to-coast will compete in the largest ultimate game ever held in Canada: The Art Hawkins Great Canadian Ultimate Game.

So how does the game work?

The game will start in Yellowknife. Every hour it will move to a new community, where the score will be carried forward and the game will continue. From Yellowknife it will travel to the west coast of Canada, then to Newfoundland before moving back west. All told, 27 communities representing all 10 provinces and 1 territory will be participating in this great game! The team with the highest score at the end of the day will receive 60 per cent of the donations for their charity, while the other team will receive 40 per cent of the donations for their charity. The Charities involved this year are the Boys and Girls Club of Canada and Ultimate Peace.
