

Craigdarroch Castle (back to back with our bed & breakfast)

Descriptive plaque outside Craigdarroch Castle.

Craigdarroch Castle, Entry Hall Mantle

Craigdarroch Castle window detail

Craigdarroch Castle, turret landing

Craigdarroch Castle, sitting room

Craigdarroch Castle, bedroom

Is your dance card full?
Craigdarroch Castle dancing hall.

Rear view of our bed & breakfast, Craigmyle, from Craigdorrach Castle

Our room,
Craigmyle bed & breakfast

Reading in the parlour, Craigmyle bed & breakfast

Grave of Dr. J. S. Helmcken, born 1824 in London, England, died in Victoria, British Columbia, 1920! (in graveyard/park next door to Christ Church Cathedral, which dates from the 1850s, where there were many very old and badly deteriorated sandstone grave markers (see next page.)

More graves (1850's and '60s) next door to Christ Church Cathedral.

Cattle Point near Oak Bay in Victoria (where settlers' cattle were evidently thrown into the sea to force them to swim for their lives and then clamber up the rocky beach.)

Return to my Home page: http://www3.telus.net/bougieblog/HOME.htm

British Columbia Parliament Buildings

Active Pass, Schwartz Bay to Tsawwassen Ferry