The Blue Light, The Firehall Arts Centre

"..Hitler (beautifully understated by Jack Paterson)"

Jerry Wasserman, The Province

"It's genuinely creepy that...Jack Paterson as the despotic fuhrer capaly convey the sad fact that these creatures were all to human."

Peter Bernie, The Vancouver Sun

"Jack Paterson makes an intriguingly soft-spoken Führer."

Colin Thomas, The Georgia Straight

"Among the most interesting performances is Jack Paterson's Hitler."

Gillian Lockitch, www.Immediatetheatre.com

Tis Pity She's a Whore, Ensemble Theatre Co.

"Paterson's Soranzo is a complicated blend of charm and sleaze."

Jo Ledingham, The Courier

"Paterson's sleazy Soranzo..take(s) hounours among the men."

Jerry Wasserman, The Province

A Streetcar Named Desire, Chemainus Theatre Festival

"Particularly...Jack Paterson as Stanley's poker buddies round out an excellent supporting cast."

John Jane, reviewvancouver.org

A Midsummer Night's Dream, Mad Duck Theatre

"The night I attended, director Paterson also distinguished himself by ably taking the role of Puck, substituting for an injured Kevin Spenst."

Colin Thomas, The Georgia Straight

"Credits to Paterson (who gamely stepped in at the last moment Saturday night) who crept about as Puck, only occasionally checking his script, and when he did it was with an ease that kept us comfortable."

Jo Ledingham, The Courier

The Street, Theatre in the Raw

"Suave, slick and persuasive is John (Jack) Paterson in the role of the scum-bucket pusher Duke."

Jo Ledingham, The Courier
