Terms and Conditions for Virtual Adoption

Title, rights to, and ownership of all horses that are Virtually Adopted remain with the Canadian Society for the Andalusian Horse (CSAH). CSAH retains all rights to all decisions made involving care and maintenance of the horse.

Cost of Virtual Adoption is donation of a minimum of $50 per horse per month or a minimum $500 per year per horse.

Once your application for virtual adoption has been accepted and approved, you will receive:

- Official recognition on the CSAH website and CSAH Facebook page as the virtual adopter of your chosen horse,
- A package in the mail with photos and information about your virtually adopted horse,
- Periodic email updates on how your virtually adopted horse is doing along with a recent photo, and,
- The option of the adopter to schedule visits with their virtually adopted horse at the facility the horse resides (if the facility allows and as per the facility's policy and procedures)

The Virtual Adopter sustains the Virtual Adoption for as long as they continue to pay the minimum $50 per horse per month. If the Virtual Adopter misses a month, they lose the Virtual Adoption and the horse goes back onto the available list of Virtually Adoptable Horses.

All horses may have more than one Virtual Adopter as most horses in sanctuary need special care and/or supplements for the remainder of their life that cost far more than $50 per month or $500 per year. If a Virtual Adopter would like to have sole privileges of Virtual Adoption of an individual horse, the minimum donation is $300 per month per horse or a minimum of $3,000 per year per horse.
