

A Celebration of the Life of Lawrence Jacober

1932 - 2008

Achievement

To have lived well, laughed often and loved much;

to have gained the respect of intelligent
men and the love of children;

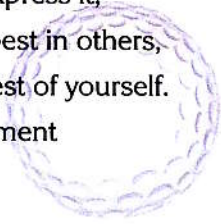

to have filled a niche
and accomplished a task;

to have left the world better - whether by an improved poppy,
a perfect poem or a rescued soul;
to have appreciated earth's beauty and not failed to express it;

to have looked for the best in others,
and to have given the best of yourself.

This is achievement

Lawrence "Yogi" Jacober passed away on June 29, 2008, at the age of 76 years. He was the beloved husband of Bernice for 55 years . He leaves to cherish his memory three daughters, Deb (Barrie) Schnell; Sherry (Randy) Biko; Cindy (Morley) Arnott; two sons, Cal (Shelly); Blair (Lisa); nine grandchildren, Jamie Schnell, Cody and Kyle Biko, Braden and Riley Arnott; Dylan and Carly Jacober; and Amber and Shelby Jacober. He was predeceased by his parents, Emil and Martha Jacober; his wife's parents, John and Bertha Reuer; one grandson, Taylor Arnott; his twin brother, Harvey Jacober; and brother-in-law, Ken Reuer. Lawrence spent his first 14 years on the family farm and then moved to Medicine Hat where he was employed at Beny Motors and then Elmer and Harold's until his retirement at age 56. Dad Loved Life! He enjoyed baseball, bowling, chocolate, candy, golfing, dancing, music, laughing, pool, whistling, and T.V. But his family meant the world to him. A prouder man was hard to come by when talking about his family. Lawrence played baseball until he was 40 years old at which time he began his illustrious golf career, including at least 100 rounds per year. Dad spent many hours at the Veiner Centre playing pool, and on the weekends danced at the Moose. Dad had a great sense of humour and loved supporting his children and grandchildren in whatever it was they participated in.
