Running Bibliography

2009-03-15

A running list of what I have read, what I am reading, and what I would like to read. As before, entries that I will not have time to read have been struck through.

Works Read

Bell, Ian A. Defoe’s Fiction. London: Croom Holm, 1985. Print. [Ch. 5, ‘Roxana, Scandal and ‘Tragedy’ (153–88) and ‘Conclusion: Novels and Romances’ (189–97).]

1. Short titles are given as per MLA format; long titles (in brackets) are given as they appear on the full-title pages of the respective works, excepting only that the usage of italics, all-caps, and all small-caps has been regularised. (Except in the case of the Westminster Confession, words in all small-caps are assumed to be in lower case, except when following terminal punctuation.) In cases where more than three booksellers are given on the title page, only the first is listed, followed by ‘et al.’
