

Table of Contents for the Full Report

Introduction and Background	PAGE 1
1. The Committee and its Mandate
2. Defining marriage and cohabitation	PAGES 2 & 3
a) marriage
b) cohabitation	PAGE 4
3. The Purpose of Marriage
4. Examples of how the problem is experienced, with indications of why cohabiting is popular.	PAGE 5
5. The Key Question: What Begins a Marriage?
6. An Historical Review of the Marriage Relationship	PAGE 6
a) The Social Covenant Model of Marriage	PAGE 7
b) Ecclesiastical and State/Legal Models
c) Marriage as Social Arrangement in the Ancient Near East	PAGE 8
d) Jewish Marriage Customs
e) Greek and Roman Marriage	PAGE 9
f) The Early Church and Marriage
g) The Middle Ages	PAGE 10
h) The Reformers and Marriage	PAGE 11
i) Marriage more recently in Canada	PAGE 12
7. Key Question Revisited	PAGE 13
8. Guidelines on how to deal with problem situations	PAGES 14 & 15
9. Concluding Comments to the Full Report	PAGE 16

List of Appendixes to the Reports:

- Appendix 1 – The original overture (attached to the Summary Report)
- Appendix 2 – A report done for Classis Alberta North (attached to the Summary Report)
- Appendix 3 – A research paper by Bert den Boggende (attached to the Summary Report)
- Appendix 4 – A summary of some aspects of “Common-law” law. (attached to the Full Report)