

1. "Do not de - spise the days of small things!" was said when Is - ra - el a - gain
 2. "Do not de - spise the days of small things!" is said to us, too, as we build
 3. Do not de - spise that means are hum - ble, here helps no migh - ty, pow'r - ful hand.
 4. As hum - ble hearts in chests re - sid - ing so is our cot - tage church be - low.
 5. Do not de - spise the days of small things! It will suc - ceed as Scrip - ture says:

a tem - ple to the God of all things was build - ing in Je - ru - sa - lem, a house of God, the Lord of all things. That word has us with com - fort filled.
 Yet e - ven moun - tain tops shall tum - ble: God's Spir - it works as He has planned.
 But God the Spir - it is pro - vid - ing the glo - rious light by which we grow,
 Our gra - cious Lord, the God of all things, the fee - ble hands of men will bless.

a shad - ow of the for - mer one, the tem - ple of king Sol - o - mon.
 We build a house of hum - ble state, a shad - ow of God's mansions great.
 Let qui - et, lov - ing work pro - ceed, in time the works of hearts suc - ceed.
 and as a cor - ner - stone se - cure God's Word for - ev - er will en - dure.
 Who the foun - da - tion hum - bly laid shall see the house for which they prayed.
